EARLY-ROUND PLAYOFF RECAPS

MEN'S D1

QUARTERFINALS

#1 SEED 67, RUNNING RAMS 55

Phillip Pandak scored 22 points and #1 Seed pulled away from the Running Rams in the 2nd half, 67-55. Bobby Foley added 12 points in the win, while John Watkinson paced the Running Rams with 14 points.

BOMBERS 65, DRT GROUP 61

Tramayne Baldwin had a huge night, and he made sure the Bombers got back on track, holding off DRT Group 65-61. Baldwin hit seven 3's and led all scorers with 34 points. Jason Wansley chipped in 10 in the win. DRT Group made a late run, but they fell short. Drew Maples scored 17 points and Cory Lail netted 14, while Brandon Braxton had 11 in the defeat.

Player of the Week: Tramayne Baldwin, #2, Bombers
The league's leading scorer ensured the Bombers a quarterfinal win, going off for 34 points in a defeat of DRT Group. Baldwin is scoring 22.9 a night, and has only been held to single-digits twice in his 37-game VAIL career.

MEN'S D2

HIGHER GROUND 64, WILDCATS 58

Ollie Claiborne dominated the interior and Higher Ground earned a hard-fought win over the Wildcats, 64-58. Claiborne finished with 19 points, while Covian Lanier drilled five 3-pointers for 15 points of his own. Taji Daily scored 14 & Darren Courtney added 11 to round out the Higher Ground balanced-scoring. David Schwartz helped keep the Wildcats in it with 11 points.

JUST THE TIP 61, TEAM WINNING 38

Just the Tip started their quest for a championship in easy fashion, 61-38 over Team Winning. Stacy Tutt led all scorers with 25 points, Marshall Tucker had 18 and Paul Ruhmann netted 11 in the win. Brian Beauford paced Team Winning with 14 points.

BALL SO HARD 78, MW-RICH 62

Ball So Hard jumped on MW-Rich early and often, rolling to a 78-62 quarterfinal win. Keishawn Whitfield's game-high 19 points, as well as 13 points each from Perry Coleman and Terrance Brackett were enough to get Ball So Hard the victory. Mike Wells scored 13 points, and Lamar Woody & Kevin Allison each scored 12 in MW-Rich's season-ending defeat.

WE R ONE 63, TEAM ENVY 53

Team Envy was far more competitive in this one than their regular-season matchup, but We R One came out victorious again, 63-53. Drew Norris and Anthony Stamper combined for six 3's and each finished with 18 points, while Paul Finn added 15 for We R One. Kenneth Randolph paced Team Envy with 14 points, and Lou Ingram & Omar Goode chipped in 10 each.

1ST ROUND

TEAM WINNING 54, RIVERSIDE ROUGES 38

Team Winning put three players in double figures and earned an easy 1st-round win over Riverside Rouges, 54-38. Neil Richburg scored a game-high 18 points, Matthew Hardison had 15, and Twan Bridges finished with 11. Riverside was paced by Dionne Clark's 18 points.

TEAM ENVY 57, BUSINESS AS USUAL 38

Team Envy ended their losing skid in impressive fashion, downing Business as Usual 57-38. Kenneth Randolph nailed three 3's and led Team Envy with 15 points, and Omar Goode chipped in 11. Amer Karic (19 points) and Kenny Eusey (13) did the bulk of the offensive work for BAU.

Player of the Week: Ollie Claiborne, #50, Higher Ground
Claiborne was the difference in the 5th-seeded Higher Ground's quarterfinal win over the 4th-seeded Wildcats. He scored 19 points and controlled the paint. Claiborne has been the top dog for Higher Ground all season, averaging 14.8 PPG.

MEN'S D3

NEW EDITION 48, BLUE CHIPS 36

The Blue Chips hung around, but New Edition's athleticism ultimately put the game away, 48-36. Keishawn Whitfield (15 points) and Aasim Wallace (11) made sure New Edition kept playing into the next round, while Jeromy Lewis led the Blue Chips with 11 points.

PLAYMAKERS 69, MAKE A SWISH FOUNDATION 33

Sam Simms scored 25 points and the Playmakers doubled up Make a Swish Foundation, 69-33. D Stokes scored 13 points & Darrell Cotman added 10 for the Playmakers, who made sure they'll have another shot at New Edition, who blew them out in Week 7. Carlos Vieira's 12 points led Make a Swish Foundation.

TEAM RAMROD 59, 804 BALLERS 51

Team RamRod broke open a halftime tie and stunned the defending-champion 804 Ballers, 59-51. Dominic Barrett took over, scoring a game-high 25 points for RamRod. Taji Daily & Mario Turner paced 804 Ballers with 15 points each.

1ST ROUND

PIPPEN AIN'T EASY 60, OUTSIDERS 33

Pippen Ain't Easy got off to a solid playoff start by rolling over the Outsiders, 60-33. David Conley led Pippen with 18 points, while Mike Williams and Sean Davis chipped in nine apiece. Joe Cuneo's 10 points paced the Outsiders.

BLUE CHIPS 61, BLUE BALLERS 42

Jeromy Lewis again powered the Blue Chips with 27 points, and they cruised past the Blue Ballers 61-42. Holden Bryant added 12 for the Blue Chips in the win. Anthony Hunt's 11 points and Scott DePalma's 10 led the way for the Blue Ballers.

TEAM RAMROD 38, TEAM DYNAMIC 29

Team RamRod shut down the Team Dynamic offense and earned a 38-29 first round win. Dominic Barrett was the lone player in the game in double figures, leading RamRod with 11 points. Perry Coleman paced Team Dynamic with nine points.

Player of the Week: Dominic Barrett, #15, Team RamRod
Barrett had a big week, leading RamRod with 11 points in a 1st round win over Team Dynamic on Tuesday, then had a monster 25-point effort in the stunning upset of defending-champion 804 Ballers. He is scoring 12.0 PPG and has led RamRod in scoring in six of their ten games this season.
