MEN'S D1

Each season in our league's elite division, the talent is deep and balanced, and this Fall 2017 session seems to be no different. To prove that point, the only 0-2 team so far is the defending champs, the Bombers, while Setliff and Holland is the only team who has jumped out to 2-0. It's always fun to reset the championship totals at the beginning of a season, so here we are through 25 seasons of D1: Village Café – 5, Bombers – 4, New York Life – 3, Wallace Express – 2. Richmond Elite & Team Richmond also have won 2, while McGuire Woods claimed two D2 titles prior to moving up a couple years ago. Don't let the regular season statistics and standings fool you in this division – there is so much parity that any team can win or lose on any given night. Team Mamba (moved up from D1) and Two Much Steelo are the newcomers to the division, so we'll see where they fall in line with the six fixtures here.

WEEK 3 POWER RANKINGS:

1. NEW YORK LIFE
2. SETLIFF & HOLLAND

WEEK 2 PLAYER OF THE WEEK:

TORY BURTON, #10, MCGUIRE WOODS

Burton scored 21 points to lead McGuire Woods to an impressive 77-69 win over Wallace Express. He's leading his team with 15.5 PPG.

MEN'S D2

We are now a few months removed from one of the best D2 finals we've seen, where C.O.R.C. edged 7 Or 7 by a point to claim the Summer League Championship. They are both back and off to fast 2-0 starts, along with RVA Buckets. After two weeks, there are also four 1-1 teams, three of which have been consistent winners but haven't broken through for a title in recent years: Hill City, St. Bridget's and Superstars. The fourth 1-1 team is Country Boys – who has taken the step up to D2 after a dominant D3 championship season this past summer.

Last week saw some standout performances, including a 95-87 shootout between C.O.R.C and Hill City that saw 21 three-pointers made, eight players in double figures (including 39 from Pat Scoggin in a losing effort). This is one of the deepest fields we've had in D2 in quite some time, so it should be a fun season to follow!

WEEK 2 PLAYER OF THE WEEK:

QUINTON JONES, #9, C.O.R.C.

Jones poured in a team-high 32 points in their thrilling win over Hill City. He's 2nd in scoring in D2 through just two weeks, averaging 26.0 PPG.

MEN'S D3A

With the realignment in D3, we are going to see a very competitive, wide open D3 A that will produce a ton of good games. Only six teams managed to stay unbeaten after the first two weeks. Will that group continue to separate, or will the bulk of the other 16 teams keep pace as the season gets going? Some standout performances from Week 2: The Wildcats had four players in double figures to earn a big win over Buuk Movement, Josh White scored 20 to help Team Voltage edge Wingmen, Another Won lit up the scoreboard for 90 vs. The Vikingz, Josh Woodridge's 22-point night powered Havoc past the Hurricanes, and T Branch hit 11 three's in Hustle Game's victory over Purple Antelope.

MEN'S D3B

The inaugural season for the D3 B division presents a great opportunity for a lot of teams to compete each and every week. That said, Box and Won and Tip-Ins Group have come out strong and set the bar very high. It's very early, but it'll be interesting to see which of the other teams rise from the pack.
