Village Café exploded for 20 three-pointers and 106 points – led by Phil Pandak's 35 and Adam Mehrer's 29 – as they dispatched Two Much Steelo. Meanwhile, Setliff & Holland became the first D1 team to get to 3-0 this season by holding off McGuire Woods. Alex Spotts (game-high 22 points), Ben Jessee (17) and Brett James (10) led the Setliff offense. The defending-champion Bombers avoided an 0-3 start, as they got 19 apiece from Trevor Bryant, Jason Wansley and Torin Holmes as they pulled away from Team Mamba.
