MEN'S D1

Not a lot of close games from Week 5, but the tightest of them all was a well-earned 53-50 win by McGuire Woods over the Bombers. It was a big win that put McGuire Woods into 3rd in the current standings, a game ahead of three teams. The Bombers were able to earn a split last week, however, as they pulled away from Village Café behind 19-point nights from both Trevor Bryant and Tramayne Baldwin. The tough week for Village Café ended with a loss to New York Life, as they moved to 4-0 with an offensive onslaught, led by Boom Osby's 31 and Quinton Jones' 28. Wallace Express ended a 3-game skid, as J Lewis scored 26, Herb Anderson and A Rice each scored 14, and they turned back Team Mamba by eight. Week 6 is headlined by the two unbeaten getting tested – Setliff & Holland vs. Bombers and NY Life vs. McGuire Woods.
