Men's Player of the Week

Patrick Gill #10, Hoosiers

Gill came in with his team trailing by ten points and proceeded to bury six three-pointers, thus single-handedly turning their game against Ten Men Strong into a 17-point win. He finished with 23 points, helping the defending champ Hoosiers to improve to 4-1. In three games this year, 18 of Gill's 21 field goals have been the three-point version, and he is averaging 20 PPG.

CoEd Player of the Week

Lindsey Henley #23, Titans

Henley scored 23 points and led the Titans to a second-half surge that allowed them to down the Bearded Clams by 19. Henley brought her 3-point total up to seven on the season, and she is averaging 11.2 PPG (CoEd translation: 15.8 PPG).

Woody's Weekly Crystal Ball – Week 5

Last Week 14-2, Season 45-15, All-time 90-39

Monday, March 8 – West End

Globetrotters vs. Ten Men Strong @ 6:30 PM

This game should determine #4 seed in the Western Conference. I'll make my picks assuming the Globetrotters have been misleading me into thinking they have these 3 big men on their team. With them, they are a top 3 team, without them, middle of the pack. Ten Men is getting better every week and refuses to go down without a fight. Will they be able to hit the outside shot that has been eluding them? (Woody thinks Ten Men Strong win by 2)

Death from Above vs. Magic @ 7:20 PM

Death from Above has shown the chemistry needed to win the league. Will they have enough inside to get past the big boys in the playoffs? We'll see. The Magic came out of the gates looking good but have struggled to find any momentum. (Woody thinks Death from Above win by 11)

Premature Shooters vs. Ballers, Inc. @ 8:10 PM

I have gone back and forth on this game. The Ballers' guards may prove to be too fast for the Premature Shooters. However the Shooters are better inside and play a more fundamental style. This game is a classic case of Street Ballers vs. Fundamental b-ball. Having said all that, I think this game comes down to free throws. (Woody thinks Ballers, Inc. win by 1 in 2OT)

Slick Lizards vs. Team Feeva @ 9:00 PM

Team Feeva has gotten better and better each game. They will be a team the top teams would rather avoid come playoff time. Lizards still looking for a second scorer. (Woody thinks Team Feeva win by 8)

Tuesday, March 9 – The FAN

Hoosiers vs. Cap City Ballers @ 6:30 PM

Two of the top teams battle at St. Gertrude. If you've been waiting for a game to come watch as a fan, this would be it. If Monster is able to go for Cap City, the Hoosiers may struggle to handle their guards. However, the Hoosiers have been on fire from the outside. Will the defending champs bring their chemistry from last season's playoff run? Or will Cap City establish themselves as the premier team in the league? (Woody thinks Cap City Ballers win by 3)

Free Agents vs. Slick Lizards @ 7:20 PM

I've said this before. Once the Free Agents learn that they have 5 very solid players that need to be on the floor more than 10 minutes a game, they will start surprising everyone. Lizards still looking for that first W. (Woody thinks Free Agents win by 5)

Wildcats vs. The Slackers @ 8:10 PM

Wildcats are coming off a huge win last week against DRT. This game is the classic trap game. The Slackers have proven they can get hot from behind the arc. The only problem is I don't see the Wildcats letting up. This team could be Championship contenders this season. (Woody thinks the Wildcats win by 8)

The Titans vs. Wells Fargo @ 9:00 PM

The Titans are cruising through the Regular Season in the CoEd Division. 4 of the top ten leading scorers reside on the Titans. Wells Fargo is starting to get the ball to their girls and could make this game interesting. I don't see the Titans losing this year but I do see Wells Fargo giving them more of a game than they want. (Woody thinks the Titans win by 11)

Wednesday, March 10 – West End

Premature Shooters vs. Globetrotters @ 6:30 PM

A doubleheader week for two very equal teams. This will be the undercard for the game of the season @ 9:00. The Shooters have gotten better each week while the Globetrotters have regressed. The Globetrotters will struggle to stop the interior scorers of the Shooters. This game should come down to the wire. (Woody thinks the Premature Shooters win by 2)

Bearded Clams vs. Knights @ 7:20 PM

Knights are currently the #2 team while the Clams sit in 3rd. The top 2 seeds get a bye and this game should determine whose team that is. If the Clams can get some scoring from their females, they could surprise the Knights. The Knights are very strong inside and always get a few buckets from their girls. Clams have been strong lately but will it be enough? (Woody thinks the Knights win by 4)

New Breed vs. Burners @ 8:10 PM

New Breed took a tough loss last week in a game they had in their hands. Burners haven't played up to their potential but look to upset New Breed. I'm thinking New Breed will be playing with a chip on their shoulder in this one. (Woody thinks New Breed wins by 9)

Cap City Ballers vs. Bullets @ 9:00 PM

GAME OF THE YEAR. The two teams are familiar with one another and have been looking forward to this game since the season began. If the Bullets come to play and decide they want to battle, Cap City may find it hard to stop all of their weapons. This is another must-see game. Chemistry allows the Bullets to come out on top. (Woody thinks the Bullets win by 3)

Thursday, March 11 – Northside

Boondock Saints vs. The Slackers @ 6:30 PM

Boondock Saints have a point guard HALLELUJAH. Edwards gives the Saints the added dimension they've been looking for the past 3 seasons. Along with Lail and the inside presence, the Saints are now a team you do not want to play in the playoffs. The Slackers enjoy playing teams that don't like to play defense, the Saints are not that type of team. (Woody thinks Boondock Saints win by 11)

Lower the Rim vs. Wendy's All Americans @ 7:20 PM

Lower the Rim looks to get in the W column against a struggling Wendy's All Americans. #2 in the preseason poll, Wendy's has a 2-3 record and need a spark going into the playoffs. (Woody thinks Wendy's All Americans win by 6)

I.C.O.S. vs. DRT Group @ 8:10 PM

This matchup is about as even as it gets. I.C.O.S. may have the top guards in the league but do they have enough to handle the Manny Harris/Andrew Maples combo? This will be a fun game to watch. It should be up and down and fairly high scoring. DRT is not happy about their triple OT loss last week and will bring that emotion to this game. I.C.O.S. is a team to watch out for down the stretch. (Woody thinks DRT Group wins by 4)

The Burners vs. Funky Town @ 9:00 PM

Funky Town is starting to gain the late season momentum that has been typical of this team. Funky Town has the best shot of knocking out one of the big 3 (Hoosiers, Cap City and Bullets) in the playoffs because of their ability to knock down the 3. (Woody thinks Funky Town wins by 14)

WEEK 4 – GAME RECAPS

MEN'S EAST

MEN'S WEST

CO-ED

Wildcats conquer DRT Group in Triple Overtime

WILDCATS 67
DRT GROUP 63

In a back-and-forth thriller, the Wildcats were finally able to build a lead and hang on to defeat DRT Group, 67-63 in triple overtime. Tom Guttenberger led the Wildcats with 19 points and was huge in their late comeback in regulation. David Schwartz added 16, including a big 3-pointer in the third overtime where they got the win. Andrew Maples led DRT Group with 20 points, but they were unable to convert on multiple chances to win in regulation and the first two overtime periods. Manny Harris added 14 for DRT in the loss.

Edwards powers Boondock Saints past the Magic

BOONDOCK SAINTS 63
MAGIC 37

Mike Edwards scored early and often, hitting seven three's and led all scorers with 29 points, helping Boondock get a 63-37 win over the Magic. Brian Marsh chipped in 14 for Boondock, who went on a monster run to turn a six-point halftime lead into a 25-point deficit that was way too much to overcome. Jordan Cordi led the Magic with 11 points, and John Rosenstock pitched in 10 in the loss.

I.C.O.S. steals win from New Breed

I.C.O.S 52
NEW BREED 50

Big shots from both teams wouldn't let this game end, but it was Isaiah Taylor's layup with two seconds to go off of a Poppy Davis steal that gave I.C.O.S. a thrilling 52-50 overtime victory. Tarik Wallace did the bulk of the scoring for I.C.O.S., including the game-tying 3-pointer in OT that set up the Davis steal to win the game. New Breed came out strong and held I.C.O.S. scoreless for the first ten minutes of the game, but they squandered the commanding 14-0 lead. Shawn Harris led New Breed with 16 points. Marcus Thomas added 14, including a clutch 3-pointer out of the corner with time running out in regulation, allowing New Breed to force the overtime session.

Magic handle Slackers with second half surge

MAGIC 70
SLACKERS 44

John Rosenstock scored 18 points, Greg Edwards added 17, and Lee Harris chipped in 11 to lead the Magic in a romp over the Slackers, 70-44. With a seven-point lead at the half, the Magic clamped down and held the Slackers scoreless for the first 11 minutes of the second half, allowing them to put the game out of reach. Spence Andrews was the lone offensive highlight for the Slackers, hitting seven 3-pointers and finishing with a game-high 23 points.

Death from Above overpower the Burners

DEATH FROM ABOVE 75
BURNERS 58

Death From Above seized control early and never looked back, cruising to a 75-58 win over the Burners. John Watkinson hit seven 3-pointers en route to a game-high 29 points. Shane Burnette and Jeb Melton chipped in 14 apiece for DFA. Jason Martin led the Burners with 16 points.

Eastern Conference Game

Bullets dominate again, this time over Team Feeva

BULLETS 53
TEAM FEEVA 32

The Bullets sprinted out to a 29-point halftime lead, mainly by holding Team Feeva to just eight first-half points, and they rolled to a 53-32 win. Kevin Smith and Matt Bowles (four 3's) each scored 15 points to lead the Bullets. D.J. Carter scored over half of Team Feeva's points, finishing with a game-high 17 in a losing effort.

Ballers, Inc. find winner's circle by rolling over Free Agents

BALLERS, INC. 59
FREE AGENTS 30

Ballers, Inc. built a 23-point halftime lead and never looked back, downing the Free Agents 59-30. Rashad Winston led all scorers with 22 points for the Ballers. Eric Piland pitched in 11 in the win. Robert Thomas scored 10 for the Free Agents, who never seemed to find a rhythm at any point in this contest.

Second-half run leads Globetrotters past Slick Lizards

GLOBETROTTERS 69
SLICK LIZARDS 41

The Globetrotters fought off a sluggish start and took control by building a huge second-half lead, and they defeated the Slick Lizards 69-41. Trai Harris led the Globetrotters with 18, while Davion Lambert added 14 and Ryan Martin chipped in 10. The Slick Lizards' Justin Wade scored 19 to lead all scorers, and Matt Singleton added 13 in the loss.

Gill catches fire and leads Hoosiers past Ten Men Strong

HOOSIERS 66
TEN MEN STRONG 49

Trailing by ten points early in the game, the Hoosiers' Patrick Gill checked in and proceeded to bury six three-pointers, helping the Hoosiers build a 16-point lead in the process, and they never looked back, downing Ten Men Strong 66-49. Gill finished with 23, while Reagan McNeer added 14, Reid Augst had 12, and Blake Augst chipped in 11. Ralph Wyatt dominated inside early on for Ten Men Strong, and he finished with 13 points. Dominique Moseley hit three 3-pointers en route to his 11-point night in the loss.

Cap City Ballers hold off Premature Shooters

CAP CITY BALLERS 57
PREMATURE SHOOTERS 49

The Premature Shooters gave Cap City fits and kept it a one-possession game down into the final minutes, but Cap City eventually finished them off with a 57-49 win. Lee Small led a balanced Cap City attack with 13 points. Zach Butler and Brandon Jackson played great for the Shooters, scoring 18 and 16, respectively. However, after tying the game with six minutes to play, the Shooters were unable to make enough plays down the stretch to pull the big upset.

Funky Town cools off I.C.O.S. late to get big win

FUNKY TOWN 65
I.C.O.S 60

Funky Town put five scorers in double figures, and Rob Rice hit four free throws in the closing minute to ice a 65-60 win over I.C.O.S. Rice led Funky Town with 21. Justin Holmes and Tyler Johnson pitched in 12 apiece, and Holmes dominated the glass. Tarik Wallace led I.C.O.S. with 12 points, and his floater with 58 seconds to play gave I.C.O.S. a one-point lead, their last lead of the game. Funky Town's 11 three-pointers and late execution proved too much on Thursday.

Hollins's big night leads the Bearded Clams by Wells Fargo

BEARDED CLAMS 50
WELLS FARGO 46

Neal Hollins scored 25 points and the Bearded Clams needed every one of them, as they survived to beat Wells Fargo, 50-46. Ben Thompson added 11 for the Clams, who overcame an ugly 8-21 performance from the foul line. Lindsay Riesbeck had a big night for Wells Fargo, scoring 19 points and just missing a game-tying four-pointer as time expired. Jonathan Wang added 11 in the loss, the second close loss of the week for Wells Fargo.

Henley's and Taylor power the Titans past the Bearded Clams

TITANS 63
BEARDED CLAMS 44

Lindsey Henley and Jerry Taylor combined for 45 points and helped the Titans turn a close game at the half into a comfortable 63-44 win over the Bearded Clams. Narissa Suber added 13 points for the Titans. Todd Zyglocke did the majority of the damage for the Clams, bringing down a bunch of rebounds and scoring 14 points in the loss.

Knights hold off Champigny, Wendy's All Americans

KNIGHTS 59
WENDY'S ALL AMERICANS 51

Jeff Champigny poured in 24 points for Wendy's All-Americans, but it wasn't nearly enough as the balance from the Knights got the job done, 59-51. Brandon Swain controlled the backboards and scored 15 points inside to lead the Knights, while James Robinson iced the game from the line, finishing with 14. Jeanette Valentine added 12 points in the win for the Knights. John Yeager and Jordan Cordi combined for 15 in the loss for Wendy's.

Knights do just enough to down Wells Fargo

KNIGHTS 41
WELLS FARGO 36

A defensive battle came down to the closing minutes, and that's when the Knights made enough plays to hang on for a 41-36 win over Wells Fargo. Anthony Harris, Brandon Swain, and Tiara Patterson combined for 27 points to lead the Knights. Wells Fargo cut the lead to three points with nine seconds remaining, but got no closer. Jonathan Wang and Lindsay Riesbeck scored 11 apiece to lead them in the loss.
